The breakdown of a relationship is a difficult time for all concerned. There is no 'one size fits all' solution to the issues involved as each set of circumstances is unique to those individuals. Most people would prefer a bespoke approach to their particular needs and priorities.

Beverley McCluskey and Louise Richardson at Hague Lambert's Knutsford office are experienced specialist family solicitors who are also trained Collaborative Lawyers. They will offer detailed advice as well as guidance and support tailored to your own unique situation. This may include pre-nuptial agreements, living together agreements, separation deeds, divorce and all related financial matters as well as the arrangements for the children.
