

Opening of Five New Independent Businesses in Knutsford provides first real evidence of green shoots o

Written by Len Thomson

Thursday, 03 September 2009 12:00 - Last Updated Sunday, 27 September 2009 22:15

Over the last month, five new independent businesses are opening, or are due to open in Knutsford. Princess Street will see the addition of Vermilion Art Gallery, owned by Manchester born, contemporary artist James Blinkhorn, and the return of

Halstone Mobile phones

. King Street saw

Primavera Restaurant & Bar

open with Sayed, the new owner,

Glamorous

, a womens' fashion shop, is due to open shortly near Pizza Express, the realisation of two local Knutsford women, Dionne Bradbury and Tracy Tiller and

Mr Simms Olde Sweet Shoppe

- a new sugar-laden box of delights right next door to Glamorous

Knutsford Property Agents are now reporting an increase in enquiries for retail premises to rent from independent businesses. See retail properties to let.